Hello Mustang Family! July was fairly busy for us. The first Saturday was our club meeting then great dinner at Hana. The second Saturday was the rescheduled Father's day show at Barksdale AFB. 14 mustangs showed up at that show and one of our members suffered a fender bender.

The next Saturday was a show and shine to Napa in Coushatta. We made it half-way before blowing a tire. Special thanks to Lane Butler for the use of his spare and to Trey Luce who followed us back to Shreveport and got us home. Next Saturday was a show and shine for our newest Sponsor O'REILLY. Thank to all 13 mustangs who showed up ! Next Saturday (12th) is a show in Hooks ,Tx open to all vehicles. Let me know if you want to join us.

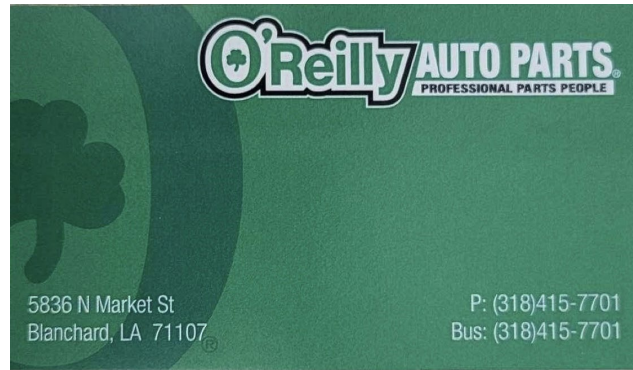

Our show in Sept is coming along well. We should have plenty in the goody bags. Dealership is getting ready and has helped decide where everything will be set up at. We are still in need of door prizes. If very one can bring one or two to the Sept meeting it will be a success. Thank you all in advance.

TOM HUGHES

RRCMC President

On a hot Saturday morning the Red River Classic Mustang club woke up and met up in Blanchard Louisiana to show support to our newest sponsor “O’Reilly Auto Parts”. We had a total of 13 Mustangs show up for the Show n Shine. After a few hours in the sun a few of us went down the street for lunch. What a great turn out we had.

“Almost”

By Club Secretary John Brewer

Sometimes in life you have to settle for “ALMOST” like my trip to the MCA show in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Longest road trip ever in Sally, my 64 ½ Mustang convertible.

It was a good trip, a fast trip, and Sally kept pace with all the 18-wheelers, BMWs, and other fast cars. The weather was hot, but the motor ran cool. And I got almost 15 MPG on the trip there and back.

But it was a “almost” trip. A couple of times my “Get Lost” app almost did it’s job. There were a lot of small town it led me through in the Texas panhandle west of Lubbock. And I “almost” found the hotel. The app led me to the back door. But here in the south no one ever uses the front door unless it is one of those missionaries bringing their message. The food in the hotel was great and I could “almost” afford it.

But I had an opportunity to clean and polish and vacuum and all that before the show. I “almost” did a great job, but I had to pause every hour for a nap and to catch my breath. That place is pretty high up and the air is kinda thin. You could “almost” breathe.

I found the show field OK. They guided to a place beside lots of other Occasionally Driven first generation Stangs. I parked next to a little red filly with style steel wheels. A great sight to look at.

I cleaned some more. And on Saturday morning I cleaned even more before the judging team of 5 stern looking individuals arrived and asked, “Are you ready?” After a little small talk, they descended on Sally. They crawled inside, under the hood, in the trunk, and underneath too. I knew something was up when Sally whispered in my ear, “What’s up?”

The words of an old country song came to mind, “Lord I hope that Judge ain’t blind.” Now I wish they’d sang, “Lord I hope that Judge IS blind.”

The next day at the awards ceremony came the most disappointing “almost” of all. Sally was awarded a Silver. We had hoped for gold. Unfortunately, that Judge wasn’t blind. He found dirt in places that Ford never built into Sally. The judging team looked at stuff that judges at prior shows I attended didn’t look at.

But it was a nice trophy, anyway.

Then comes the final “almost” when this month’s Mustang Times arrived. I scanned each and every picture they published from the show. The Times photog came buy taking lots of shots. The article featured the very nice ride parked across from me. I think I found the one parked on the row behind me. And Sally was “almost” included in the picture featured on page 3 at the top. The picture began with that cute red filly with the styled steel wheels and went on down the line from there. Sally “ALMOST” made the shot.

Next up is Florida in September. But as of today I am not “almost” ready.

From Rusty RRCMC Vice President

July was a very interesting month. Kay and I spent several relaxing days with good friends out at the lake camping and enjoying the fellowship. Great 4th of July fireworks display at Lake Claiborne State Park. Wish we could do a lot more camping!! We had several club members travel to Coushatta for a Show' N Shine for a sponsor. Unfortunately, on the way down, Tom & Jean Hughes had a blowout on their Roush. Fortunately, there was no damage to the car. Many thanks to Lane Butler for having a spare, jack, and tire tool. These new cars don't come with a spare tire or jack. Only a fancy can of fix-a-flat and an air pump. This is also a reason that we travel in a group. There will always be some help when help is needed. (Ask Trey Luce sometime)

Our show is only a month away!! We Need Door Prizes!!! Also, we should all be handing out flyers and inviting people to come out and participate.

As we all already know, this has been a super hot summer. Please remember to stay hydrated when being outdoors and take breaks often. Also, watch out for your friends/neighbors when we're outside at the same time as they are. We need to take care of each other.

Keep the ponies on the Road!!

Rusty Rhame,
RRCMC Vice President

Hey everyone,

Hope everyone is well. August 12th is the David Briggs Car Show in Hooks, TX. That's the only one that I know of. We will cruise to a new Mexican restaurant where Chimi V's use to be at 7:00 pm.

We still need give aways for our September show if you have any please bring them with you.

After a month of not having a job I finally landed one and started on August 1st. I'm at new Brookshire's on Airline Drive north of I-220. I'm working in the Deli, so if you shop at Brookshire's come say Hi!
